Ashley's Dispatch July 2008

A few weeks ago I got a call from Candice at Kensington Station. She told me that they were going to start renting out the clubhouse and that I had a week to organize my teaching materials into one of the closets.

“What! Are you shutting down the after school program completely?” I yelled out.

“Oh no! We’re only going to rent it out on the days you’re not there.” Candice said reassuringly.

I was down to the last cabinet of things to go through and put away when Angela came in.

“Can I help you do anything?” She walked around peeking into boxes.

“Sure! Can you help me hold this trash bag open?”

She held the bag while I emptied the remains of the cabinet in it: old workbooks, math books from the 70’s, tracts and Bibles, spiders and puzzle pieces.

“Can I have that?” Angela pointed to the tract which read, “How to Have a Special Friend.”

“Of course.”

She started to unfold it and read the contents.

Asia came in the clubhouse dripping wet.

“Aww! Why does Angela get something? I want one!”

I handed her a tract.

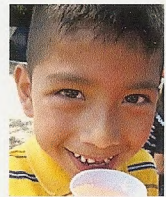

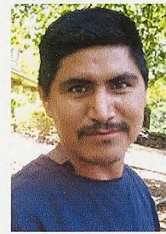

“Do you know what this is?” I asked the two girls.

“Nuh huh.” Asia shook her head and the beads in her hair clapped together.

“Here let’s read it.” We sat on the floor with the packed boxes.

“Gold. Gold reminds you of Heaven where God lives....”

Asia’s bathing suit dripped on the hard wood floor forming a puddle. People around the pool screamed as girls got pushed in. The loud speaker goes off, “NO RUNNING!”

The girls are unphased and kept reading out loud.

Asia read, "Do you want Jesus to come into your heart and help you be good?"

"YES!" Angela exploded with the answer.

"That's great! God really wants to come and live in your heart. He wants to change your lives. The God that created this Earth, the universe, you and me wants you to know Him. This might sound weird because you can't see God but you can talk to Him through prayer."

The girls nodded their heads.

"Asia, Angela, if you want Jesus, to come and live in your heart and help you to be good you have to pray this prayer."

We turned the pamphlet over and read the prayer together.

Three voices rang out in unison, "Lord, I know I've sinned. Please forgive me. Thank you for sending your Son Jesus to die on the cross for me. Thank you for taking away my sins. Come into my heart so I can live in Heaven with You."

I hugged them and said, "I'm so proud of you guys! This is life changing! Don't go back to your old ways, you have to grow into you new life!"

Please pray for Asia and Angela's decision to follow Christ.
