

Ashley's Dispatch

April 2012

ashleyannkendall.com

ashleyackendall@gmail.com

I eased my car into a parking space at Huntington Terraces Apartments. The team was already there telling the Resurrection story. All the kids were sitting on the cinderblock wall listening to the story teller.

"Jesus died on the cross to take away all your sins. It's His gift to you. But you have to pick up that gift and invite Jesus to live in your heart. Let's pray."

The children bowed their heads and folded their hands as the team led them in the acceptance prayer..." Thank you Lord for bringing us here today. Please bless these children and allow them to come to know and accept You as their personal Savior. Amen."

At the end of the prayer with their eyes still bowed the team asked, "now raise your hands if you prayed to invite Jesus into your heart." A few of the older kids raised their hands.

"Ok ,great! Open up your eyes, and if anybody wants to talk to us more about that prayer come to anyone of us."

Most of the kids got up and began playing basketball or jumprope, but one of the older girls and another boy, who had raised their hands, went to learn more.

"Jesus loves you so much. I'm so happy that you choose to accept his gift of love and everlasting life." One of the team members said to the girl, hugging her tightly.

The girl looked up at the team member and said, "I'm happy you Americans came and taught me about Jesus!"

I'm so excited to be a part of this ministry and I look forward to all the other teams coming to tell others about Jesus.

Ashley and Miles

A SPECIAL THANK YOU
TO THE ACTEENS ACTIVATORS TEAM FROM ALEXANDER CITY, AL