Outreach Update

July 2015

Hello, my friends!

A few weeks ago, I committed to learning Psalms 77:10:20. Part of it goes, “Your ways, oh God, are holy. What God is so great as our God? You are the God who performs miracles. You display your power among the Peoples.”

One of the things I love about my job is the chance to see miracles. God is still in the miracle working business! In June, we hosted two youth choirs. We took the kids on a Cultural Safari to one of the Hindu temples at Global Mall.

It was a large group of kids and we nearly filled up their temple. I pointed out some objects in the temple and explained what they mean. At the end I told Tek, the Hindu priest on duty, “We have a gift for you! The choir would like to sing a song for you. Is that OK?”

“Of course!” He waved enthusiastically.

Julie, the choir director, got the group’s attention and launched into a praise song. Wow! The Hindu temple was awash in the sound of Jesus praise songs. My guess is that’s pretty rare!

The groups were supposed to sing at the apartment complexes in the evenings. We had good crowds, but nothing NEAR what I thought it would be like. I just couldn’t get a peace from the Lord about continuing to sing at the complexes. The Father kept telling me, “Go to where the people are.” And of course He’s right! But that meant setting up concerts literally that evening and for the next three days in secular market places. Again, do you have any idea how rare that is? The owner of the Buford Highway Farmers Market gave us the “OK” to perform at the front, near the check out stands. Amazing to watch Buddhists, Hindus and Muslims walk right beside this choir just rocking for Jesus!

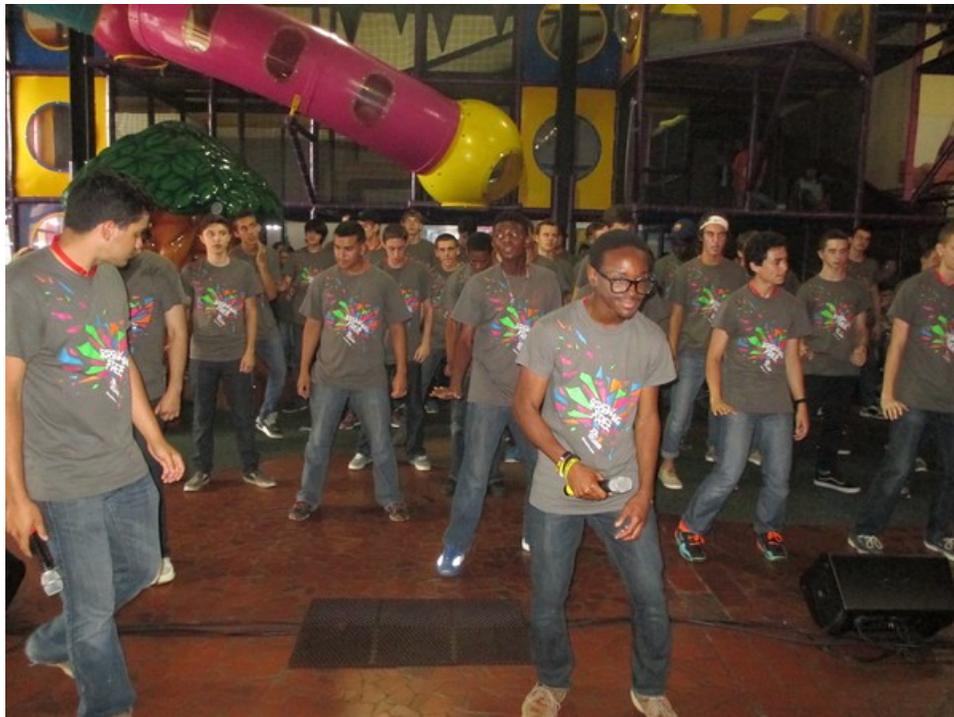

I told Ashley, “We need to talk to Plaza Fiesta. That place will be packed!” She agreed, so we went to the management of Plaza Fiesta. I explained about the choir to the Mall Supervisor and she thought it was a great idea. Both choirs did fantastic jobs and the people loved it.

There are many hundreds of children in the International Village who are hearing the Gospel for the first time right now. Your prayers and financial support keep us working for the Lord! Please pray that the Father will continue to give us favor with these large, secular market places. And pray for the one on one evangelism going on in over forty apartment complexes.

Love, Tim and Kathy
