

Whirlwind Missions

Outreach Update July 2016

Hello, my friends!

Last fall, one of our best missionaries, Bayo Otiti, went to be with the Lord. It was such a sad time for us. His wife, Marjorie, had been working with him for the last two years. Even though she doesn't speak any Spanish, it was her decision to try and keep the ministry going.

With the help of volunteers from Dunwoody Baptist church, she was able to assist the children with the homework. Even though many times they were overwhelmed by the need of the kids, they kept trying.

As the Summer started, Marjorie felt the need to go back to New Jersey to see her family. It's important to keep your family strong! She left with the words, "I'll be coming back," but we were not sure when.

This week, I received a text from her.

"Tim, my neighbor at the complex said there are two men in my apartment and that they're taking things. Do you know what's going on?"

I replied, "No. As far as I know everything is going fine."

"My neighbor said she tried to stop them, but that they told her that the office said that I was leaving for good. I told them that I was coming back!"

"I will check on this for you, Marjorie." The next day I went by her apartment. Most of her stuff had been taken. Her neighbor, Dulce, said, "I tried to stop them, but they said they were sent by the office and that she wasn't coming back."

As I looked around the apartment, I was filled with deep sadness. Her place was completely ransacked. Later that day, I called her back, "Marjorie, I got your winter coat, your Bibles and your financial records. Looks like everything else had been taken. I'm so sorry for this. Do you think you'll still come back?"

"I don't think so, Tim. I don't think I could ever feel safe there again," she replied.

Whirlwind Missions continues to send teams to Huntington Terraces, but the loss of our on site missionaries is difficult to overcome. PLEASE pray that God will raise up more workers!

LOVE, TIM AND KATHY

Take the Church,
To the People!

Keep the Drive ALIVE!
Please support our ministry! Make checks out to
WHIRLWIND MISSIONS.
Mail checks to 5935 New Peachtree, Doraville, GA 30340