Outreach Update September 2016

Hello, my friends!

Twenty years ago the Olympics were in Atlanta, Georgia! The Cummins family was on their way back to the USA to start a new ministry with the international population. It seemed a perfect fit! We worked out of the same church where Kathy and I were married thirty years ago. My office is right beside where my father in law used to study the Bible. With 145 different countries and 761 language groups represented it was a match made in Heaven. We are looking forward to having our Double Decade Dinner this month! Each of our supporters deserve a gold medal!

The Olympics just concluded in Rio. Kathy and I enjoyed watching these superb athletes in action. My favorite is always the running events. Running just seems like the purest sport. Paul said that we should "Run the race to win!"

It occurred to me that perhaps we need a Christian Olympics. What would be our events? Perhaps Bible Quotation, Evangelism, and Prayer could work.

"Bible Quoters take your mark. Set. QUOTE!"

'For God so loved the world.'

"The American team is off to an early lead with a crowd favorite, John 3:16."

"The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ his son."

"Great strategy to use the Roman Road! He'll get extra points for that."

On the other side of the field, the Evangelists were in action.

"Did you know that God loves you and has a wonderful plan for your life?" One competitor said.

"Terrific strategy of starting with God's love."

"If you died tonight, do you know where you'd spend eternity?" Stated another.

"Ooooo. A stumble on that move. No one likes implied Hell."

The Prayers took the field.

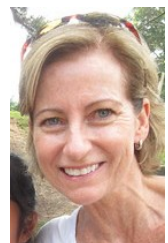

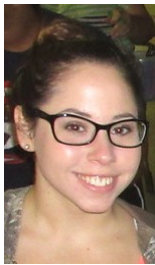

"And here come the Prayers! They get down on their knees. Ready, Set, PRAY!"

"Father, thank you for loving me."

"Always a terrific move to start with thanks. Well prayed."

Sound ridiculous? Football season has just started. Love Jesus more than your team.

LOVE, TIM AND KATHY
