Outreach Update

October 2017

Hello, my friends!

I received a text from Nancy that she needed me to call her. It was urgent. Whenever I see a message like that I always assume it's about money. Whirlwind Missions is known for its generosity. Over the years we have helped hundreds of families and thousands of children! Perhaps the most difficult thing about being in a financial crunch is having to tell them, "No, I'm sorry, but we don't have the money to help you." It's heart breaking.

I sent her a text in return, "How can I help?"

She replied, "We really need to talk."

I finished helping the kids with their homework and gave her a call. "Hey, Sister, what's up?"

"Mr. Tim, we really need help. You know we moved into our new apartment and we need advice."

"Sure. What's the problem?"

"Every time Miguel and I come home we fight and fight. When we leave the apartment, everything is just fine. I've talked to my neighbors and they said that no one ever lives in that apartment for very long. They always move out as soon as they can. I think someone must have died there or that there is an evil spirit there that is attacking us. What do you think we should do?"

I must admit at that point scenes from the Exorcist came into my mind. "So you feel there is an evil spirit in your house?"

"Yes, Mr. Tim, we do?"

"I would be glad to pray with you about that, but I can't say I've ever cast out demons from an apartment before."

"Do you know someone who might be able to help?"

"I know that there are stores at Plaza Fiesta that have special potions and candles against evil spirits. That might help. Our real weapon against these demons is the HOLY SPIRIT inside you!"

"Yes, Mr. Tim, I believe that, too!"

"Let's pray. "FATHER, we bind the evil one right now with any spirit of fear or oppression that this family may be encountering. We ask that you will give them peace and confidence. We cast out any evil that is in their house in the name of Jesus and his blood on the cross. We thank you for your love and concern for us! AMEN!"

"Thank you, SO much Mr. Tim. I feel a lot better now!"

"Love you, Nancy. I look forward to seeing you soon!"

Whirlwind Missions has been under so much financial pressure lately. Church giving has dropped off as many of our partners fail to reach their budgets. THANKS to all the individual families that have chosen to give sacrificially in order for us to "Take the Church, to the PEOPLE!" Every single dollar helps us! PLEASE, we need YOUR help! THANKS!
