Outreach Update November 2015

Hello, my friends!

One of the favorite parts of my ministry is mentoring people. In the beginning of our relationship, I always ask the question, "If you could do your dream job in ministry, what would that look like?"

People have answered, "I'd teach guitar," "I love soccer, maybe I could coach," "I love working with moms with young babies," "I'm good at drama." God always uses your talents and desires to put you on the mission field!

I have one team that is gifted at basketball! Kathy and I go to church at Westside Baptist Church in Snellville, GA. We love Pastor Ben's passion for reaching the lost. He is also a phenomenal basketball player! I've seen him make over 40 free throws in a row! He is also a gifted evangelist.

The HOPE team from Westside BC was involved with sharing the Gospel in a very simple way. Each member had the opportunity to share a part of the story. Some talked about sin, others of the gift of Jesus dying for us on the cross.

Imagine forty young people and their parents watching this presentation, including our Muslim families from Bangladesh! At the end of the presentation, we had 24 different children and one parent tell the counselors, "I trusted Jesus." The most amazing part? Five of those children were Muslim! It's an amazing thing to pray for "my" kids for years and then see them give their hearts to Lord!

Yesterday, Ashley and I took our team from FBC Naples, Florida to the Hindu temple at Global Mall. We had the thirty students in their youth group as well as fifteen Hindus that were at the temple for the festival in honor of Durga. I explained to our group the basics of what Hindus believe under the watchful eyes of Hindus. At the end of my presentation, One of the Hindu ladies made some comments. "We have faith in Shiva. You have faith in Jesus. It is important to have faith in God!"

I smiled at Mrs. Gupta as she made her comment, but inside I was conflicted. MANY times I have heard people say, "All religions are the same, they just have different names for God." There may be many names for god, but there is only one TRUE GOD! Thank you SO much for continuing to support our ministry. Whether on the basketball court or in the Hindu temple, we are sharing the Gospel! Your prayers and support make this possible! Thanks for being on the team! Please pray for Ashley in November! She will add a new missionary to our team around Thanksgiving!

Love, Tim and Kathy
