

Whirlwind Missions

Outreach Update August 2016

Hello, my friends!

I love outreach! Our Summer teams have done a great job in the International Village! We need to “Take the Church, to the People!” I had a terrific choir from Texas recently. They sang, fed people, and loved on the community. One of the team members called me over.

“Mr. Tim, come talk to Juana.”

I walked over and said, “Hola!”

“Hello, my name is Juana!”

“My name is Tim, mucho gusto! How can I help you?”

“I have three children and my husband has left me. I am trying to support my family but it is very difficult. I saw that you were a church. Where do you meet?”

“Juana, my friends here are from Dallas, but I think you would enjoy El Calvario in Doraville.”

She asked me about when the services were and how to get there and then said, “I am not happy. I have gotten away from God and I feel I need to come back.”

“Juana, you can never be happy apart from God. He loves you so much and wants to have a strong relationship with you.”

She nodded and said I was right.

“Here is my card. Call me if I can help,” I handed her one of my prayer cards.

She nodded and said, “Thank you, so much, senior. I feel so much better now.”

I then said, “I’d like to pray for you.”

Gratefully, she responded, “Yes. Please.”

“Father, we thank you so much for how you care for us and love us. My friend Juana has wandered away from you. She wants to change that. Help her to find a good church home and be the role model that her children need. Strengthen her and keep her and her family safe. We ask this all in your name. AMEN.”

She looked up with tears in her eyes.

“Thank you.”

“You’re welcome!” I said and shook her hand firmly.

Summers are a challenging time. Record heat makes it difficult to function outside. You may have noticed that I get pretty excited. When I am working with nearly 200 students all of whom are shouting “Take the Church/To the People” as loud as they can, I get super excited. Usually that means I yell so much I get completely hoarse. I have learned that God is always able and he strengthens me to get through the hot, hoarse times!

Our teams have led hundreds of children and parents to the Lord over the years. THANKS for your support. You have made a difference in someone’s eternity!

LOVE, TIM AND KATHY

Take the Church, To the People!

Keep the Drive ALIVE!

Please support our ministry! Make checks out to WHIRLWIND MISSIONS.

Mail checks to 5935 New Peachtree, Doraville, GA 30340