Outreach Update

May 2018

Hello, my friends!

I just got back from the Department of Motor Vehicles. I'm turning 60 in July! That means a new driver's license. I've had the same picture for twenty years. I actually have a full head of hair! Still looks like me. Sorta.

My new license is a secure ID. I had to bring my passport or birth certificate, proof of income with a W2 and proof of where I live. Not sure what my W2 has to do with driving! What surprised me was that she didn't ask me to do a vision test! Fortunately, my eyes are great, although if you're so close that I need my reading glasses, you're TOO close!

As I was gathering up all the documents for this procedure, I kept thinking about identification. This new card will PROVE to other people that I am who I say I am.

Can you imagine what it would be like if when we get to heaven they asked for your ID?

"Welcome to Heaven! ID, please," stated Peter.

"ID, What kind of ID?"

"Proof that you're a Christian."

"I went to church."

"Not good enough," Peter responded

"I wore a Christian Tshirt to school once."

"Nope."

"Didn't cheat on my taxes."

"You're kidding, right?"

"I went to Sunday School."

"And?" Peter asked.

Frustration was mounting and Jesus came over.

"Can I help?"

"YES! Jesus! Tell them you know me!"

"I know you. But can't say we're close."

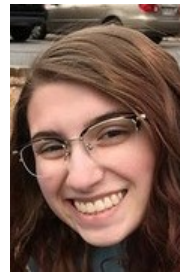

"What do you mean?"

"You know some facts about me, but I can't remember a conversation with you in years. Any proof that you're a believer?"

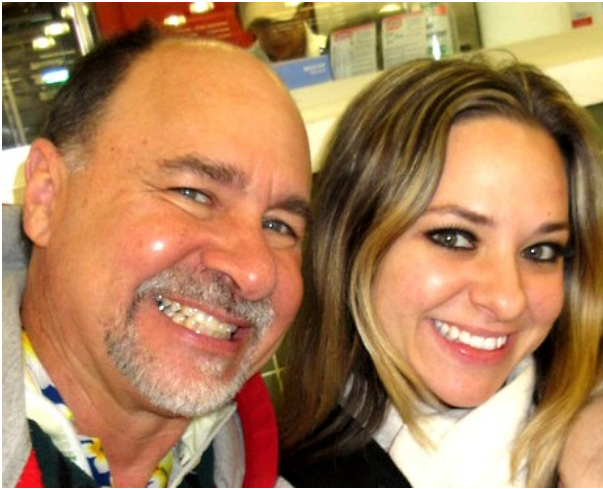

I think about what I would say. How could I prove that I'm a believer? What evidence could I give that I'm a Christian?

Does Easter already seem like a long time ago? He is RISEN and people still need to know!
